Doing Rainbow Street Proud

It was lovely to receive the following letter last week...

Dear Principal,

Yesterday, I had the pleasure of taking 11 students from the Sydney Coastal Zone to compete in the Eastern Suburbs PSSA Touch Football trials. Max was a representative from your school. On the day, we won every game in our pool beating Georges River, Balmain and Cronulla. We then went on to be successful against South Sydney in the Quarter Final. In the Semi Final, we unfortunately went down to Sutherland by 1 touchdown in a time-reduced match. I was exceptionally happy with how Max played on the day. He represented your school and the zone very proudly. His behaviour, attitude, and sportsmanship are a testament to himself, his family and to your school.

Could you please pass on my words to Max and congratulate him again.

Yours sincerely,

Kieren Irons

Sydney Coastal Touch Convenor

Well done Max!
